2Peter Chapter 3:1-13 April 8, 2016

April 8	3, 2016
1 ¶ This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:	Purpose – REMEMBERANCE (Nothing new here)
2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:	Words Already Spoken (Nothing new here) The COMMANDMENT of 'us the apostles' = AUTHORITY cf Heb 2:3-4 Authority of the Gospel "3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; 4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?"
3¶ Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,	LAST DAYS, started at the ascension of Christ. We are indeed in the Last of the Last Days, and these scoffers have come and gone and come again.
4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.	Fathers fell asleep? From Creation to Today its all the same u·ni·for·mi·tar·i·an·ism n. The theory that all geologic phenomena may be explained as the result of existing forces having operated uniformly from the origin of the earth to the present timeu"ni·for"mi·tar"i·an adj. & n. Uniformitarianism must DENY THE WORLD FLOOD! It must further DENY ALL SUPERNATURAL EVENTS ERGO verse 5&6 "I can think, I can research, " See excerpt below (From my own "Science Essay" excerpted from Ltr to Methodist Preacher) "There is NO scientific evidence that supports the conjecture that Charles Lyell, made in the 1830's about uniformitarianism, (i.e. all things continue as they have from the beginning, naturally with no cataclysmic events like a world flood or a supernatural intervention)."
5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:	We already talked about what it means to be 'willingly ignorant' and who might be 'unwillingly ignorant.' Ignorant of "BY THE WORD OF GOD" an te di ·lu ·vi ·an adj. 1. Extremely old and antiquated. See Synonyms at old. 2. Occurring or belonging to the era before the Flood written about in the Bible. 6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:	"The earth standing out of the water and in the water" is DEFINITELY a reference to the World Flood and its denial.
7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.	understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." UNTO FIRE Judgment AND per · di · tion n. 1.a. Loss of the soul; eternal damnation. b. Hell: "Him the Almighty Power/Hurl'd headlong /To bottomless perdition, there to dwell" (John Milton). 2. Archaic. Utter ruin. [Middle English perdicion, from Old French perdicion, from Late Latin perditi ¹ / ₂ , perditi ¹ / ₂ n-, from Latin perditus, past participle of perdere, to lose] perdition here is justly assumed for 'ungodly men.'
$$ \P$ But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.	AWESOME Just Awesome. The CONTEXT here declares that it being 2 thousand years since he said it CANNOT detract from the promise, God is not intimidated by time. The PROTESTANTS use this to deny the literalness of Rev 20 where "thousand years" is used 6 times in 6 verses!

 9 ¶ The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. Mt 12:41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. Mt 21:29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. Mt 21:32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Mt 27:3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the might be be appreciate the second sec	Albert Einstein used it to develop a bounded universe where time alters in deep space, especially approaching the boundary conditions where speed of light can be exceeded. RATIO 1 day/Thousand Years = 1 / 365,255 which is a VERY REASONABLE warping of time. When speed of light and relativity are understood and explored. 2000 years of LONGSUFFERING to rebellious humanity Consider the 2000 years of history He has held off judgment! REPENTANCE use 45 OT 60 NT 105 total. 11 from Just Matthew Listed: Mt 3:2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Mt 3:8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: Mt 4:17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Mt 9:13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Mt 11:20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not: Mt 11:21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. IN THE WHICH ? What about the 7 year tribulation? What about the battle of Armageddon? What about the Devil in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.	Chains for 1000 years? What about the Millennial Reign? Why does Peter Jump right to THE END? SEEING THEN! Next verse.
11 ¶ Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,	THE IMPORTANT QUESTION. Considering it all and the 'soon coming' end, what manner indeed.
12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?	It is all going to burn!
13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.	Nevertheless we won't.

(From my own "Science Essay" excerpted from Ltr to Methodist Preacher) I can think, I can research, and I can find that the Biblical account of creation and of cataclysmic interventions of a supernatural God supports all the evidences seen in this world far better than the wild unproven, undemonstrated speculations of Darwinianism that now pretends, with no evidence, that it started 3.5 billion, that's 3,500,000,000, years ago. That such could possibly be true contradicts their uniformitarianistic basis of their initial conjecture! There is no science in their conjectures nor in their aging estimations. They are but wild unsubstantiated hypothesis that there is no God and no creator. NO science is involved in this hypothesis, no laboratory proving of the speculation. The "fossilized stromatolites and other fossil remains" offers clear evidence all right, but NOT evidence of an evolution of species that the Methodist Reverend purports. It is direct evidence of the mass graves of thousands, yea millions, of created beings which were drowned together in a world catastrophic flood.

The innumerable metric tons of coal in the earth do not speak of millions of years of evolution but of a cataclysmic flood that uprooted millions of tons of lush vegetation that grew in a green-housed earth where things lived for hundreds of years. (i.e. explain the gigantic palm trees found frozen in the ice pack of both poles via your uniformitarian evolutionary theory!) The thousands of frozen mammoths found under the ice packs of Siberia and the Yukon, the thousands of dinosaur fossils and jungle animals found together in the mountains ranges of Antarctica do not support any theory of evolution, they absolutely confound it. But they do support a cataclysmic world flood that the evolutionists vehemently deny. Every known culture of humans has accounts of this world flood, it is not scientific to throw out all of that because it does not fit your current godless theory, in fact it is unscientific. The immense pockets of oil in this world testify to millions of decayed animals buried in one catastrophic event, not to millions of years, that's why we call them fossil fuels!

The Atlantic Ridge gives evidence of the foundation of the earth being broken up like the Bible says, not of millions of years of uniformitarianism as speculated by godless evolutionists. The Grand Canyon's formation in a few weeks of massive erosion from a huge trapped inner lake running off as the waters 'abated' after a world flood is very believable. Such has been demonstrated innumerable times when natural damns burst and erode canyons today, or when Mt. St. Helens cut canyons through bedrock in only weeks. That makes far more 'scientific' sense than the godless evolutionists idea that in millions of years of the Colorado river flowing through (up hill at first) dirt, it cut through their fictitious geological column.

Today we have exposed fossilized trees that would have to grow through 300,000 of their fictitious years. That's unbelievable. That's not scientific evidence of evolution or of aging, that's balderdash. They cannot support one component of their hypothesis about the origin of life, the Miller-Urey 'scientific experiment' of 1952 was demonstrated impossible, unverifiable and fraudulent in 1960. It is still taught in our High School texts as 'scientific proof' of their hypothesis, doubtless the Methodist Rev. read it in his high school. The Darwinian cannot support one component of his hypothesis about evolution of a species of mammals coming from an amoeba that has both life and DNA, let alone from a banana, like Darwin supposed. And then to suppose that a family of rodents, slowly turned into a family of dogs, that traded paws and claws for hoofs of a horse is so much idle speculation that even an uneducated imbecile could see through it. They have no evidence at all, let alone any 'scientific evidence.'

If the age of this earth were only 2 million years and their theory of uniformitarianism were true the natural erosion of Niagara Falls would put it in Cleveland Ohio, and Lake Erie would be lush farm land. If only 2 million were true the Gulf of Mexico would be filled with Mississippi sediment and we would be bringing in potatoes not fish. All evidence demonstrates a earth that is less than 10,000 years old, unless you start with a wild hypothesis about snails slowly, slowly, slowly turning into mammals then slowly, slowly, slowly evolving into intelligent beings with Phds.

The only thing that could get an estimate close to 2 million years is their fool conjecture that we evolved here, and now they are describing a "Hadean Era" of an uninhabitable earth 4.6 BILLION years ago, and a "Archaen Era" of an inhabitable earth only 3.8 BILLIOIN years ago. Those who would believe such rubbish exhibit a godless motivation and an immensley defective imagination. They describe two rocks rubbing together and magically producing organic material that turned into an amino acid and sparked life! ... DNA! That life somehow started to breath and it grew arms that slowly, slowly, slowly turned into wings. Balderdash! I don't reject that because I am not an idiot, I can think logically; I reject that because I am an engineer and have studied the 3rd law of thermodynamics!
